

i financially support k-love, its awesome. all 3 of my kids love it. its positive, clean, worry free for a 7 year old. a local station could not generate the support needed. let freedom ring, its been on the air for 20 years. obviously supported by the public and unlike many cultural things now, its righteous and good.